

Mr. Gianluca Cutajar

Member of the Malta Statistics Authority

2016-Present

Gianluca Cutajar was appointed as a Board Member of the Malta Statistics Authority in June 2016. As a person with physical disability, he leads a very positive and active life. He studied for thirteen years at De La Salle College, Cottonera, Malta up till post - secondary level. His main areas of studies are Business, Finance and Economics.

He has been working at Bank of Valletta p.l.c. for the past five years. He is following a career in the Financial Services sector presently in Banking. Recently, he has obtained a qualification from the Chartered Institute for Securities & Investment in 'Introduction to Securities & Investment (International)' and in 'International Introduction to Investment'. These form part of Active Learning in the Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment (CISI) (CPD) Continuous Professional Development Scheme.

His hobbies include, following current affairs with particular interest in disability issues. One of his foremost interests is the Employment and Active inclusion of Persons with Disability in Society. Other hobbies are football, movies, listening to music and reading.